

Addressing and helping students; change the question type

Not so much:	But, for example:
How is it going?	What's going well, and where do you get stuck?
Is it clear?	Which parts are still unclear?
Did you understand it?	How would you explain that in your own words?
Are there any questions?	What questions do you have right now?
Do you need any help?	With what could you use some help?
